

AFRICAN AMERICAN MOVEMENTS

BY ALAN CRUZ, ANGEL AVILA, ANTONIO VAZQUEZ

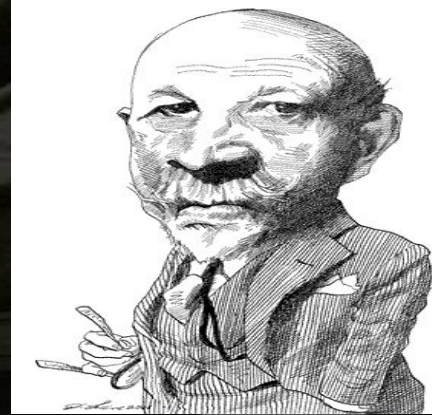

W.E.B DU BOIS AND THE NIAGARA MOVEMENT

Background Information

W.E.B Du Bois was an important African American Leader. W.E.B Du Bois is the co-founder of the Niagara movement in 1905 with William Monroe Trotter as a Radical Black Civil Rights movement to demand immediate rights like free speech and to stop discrimination against African American people.

A fun fact that some people may not know is that W.E.B du bois was the first African-American to receive a PHD from Harvard in 1895 its first in the schools history since it was founded in 1636 which was a statement in itself that determination can reward you with the knowledge of great minds as well as overcome any barrier with the right motivation and intelligence.

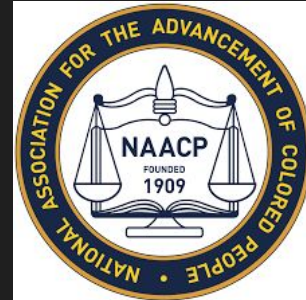

THE N.A.A.C.P.

Information about The N.A.A.C.P

The NAACP is a national Association for the growth of colored people. This organization is America's oldest Civil Rights Organization. It was founded in 1909 by a group of Activists, Including W.E.B Du Bois to fight for the rights of African Americans and to end all Racial discrimination.

The NAACP worked hardly to promote equal rights. It went to the courts to challenge unfair laws and to stop segregation in schools and public places. The N.A.A.C.P group also helped people register to vote and spoke out against violence and hate towards African Americans.

MARCUS GARVEY AND THE BACK TO AFRICA MOVEMENT

Information about Marcus Garvey and back to Africa Movement

Marcus Garvey was a Black Leader from Jamaica who became famous in the early 1900s for his ideas about black pride. He believed that people of African descent around the world should feel proud of their race. Marcus Garvey later moved to the United States where he became an important black nationalist.

The back to Africa Movement was the idea that Black people living outside Africa, especially African Americans should return back to Africa, Which many people saw as their true homeland. It was mainly a voluntary movement not forcing anyone to go but it would offer a way to escape racism and build a free black nation.

The End

